“What Does Diversity Even Mean and Why Does It Matter?”

Please join us for this interactive training that provides opportunities to gain a deeper understanding of diversity, explore its complexities and the impact it has on individuals in academic environment.

Facilitator: Jude McNeil
Assistant Director for the Office of Inclusive Excellence at the University of Utah

Learning Objectives

• To deepen participants’ own cultural self-awareness
• To recognize ways in which social identities such as race, class, sexual orientation, and gender intersect and influence individual life experiences and perspectives.
• To acknowledge that social identity impacts the types of opportunities and challenges we face.

Refreshments will be served.
